Our time together works best if we are all in agreement on the following policies:

1. Intensives begin on time. Please be respectful of the other participants and the facilitator.
2. Participants are asked to contribute assigned items for lunch on both Saturday and Sunday. The cost is not included in your tuition.
3. Participants are asked to purchase dinner on Saturday evening. The cost is not included in your tuition.
4. Please take good care of yourself by having breakfast before the Intensive on both days.
5. Everyone is expected to take part in the preparation and clean-up of meals, keeping the space clean and safe.
6. A Yahoo Group will be set up where you can make arrangements for sharing transportation and accommodations. Please post your questions in that forum. The Yahoo Group will also be used to announce items you'll need for class, the assigned contributions for lunch and other matters. You will be invited to participate in the Yahoo Group upon receipt of your registration.
7. The registration deadlines are firm.
8. Refund Policy: Refunds in the amount of 50% of the tuition will be granted if you cancel your registration up to 45 days prior to the date of Intensive. No refunds will be made for cancellations later that 45 days prior to the Intensive. Refunds may take up to 90 days to process.
9. Although some of the topics, exercises and goals of Feri Tradition include personal healing, they should not be confused with those of the psychotherapeutic or medical communities. If you are in need of psychotherapeutic or medical assistance, it is suggested you obtain it in the appropriate forums.
